

Under the cutter's torch

Two fitters are seen cutting up a TSR.2 fuselage at BAC Samlesbury, from information provided through the contributor by Warton Photographic Department this photo was taken on 7 September 1965. Note that this is a front, Weybridge-built fuselage and a rear, Preston-built section, and other material, including another rear fuselage behind.

The photo was sent in by Mr Thomas Elliott, age 92 in June 2007, who says that the original takes pride of place on his sideboard, for it is he who is the person on the left of this photo.

Mr Elliott joined BAC at Samlesbury in 1965 and worked there until 1980.
